- work emails and private emails (when using work email address) and Internet browsing history
- other people who come into contact with the School including name and contact details and any other information necessary for the particular contact with the school.

Personal Information you provide:

Wadja Wadja High School will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by parents or students, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions people other than parents and students provide personal information.

Personal Information provided by other people:

In some circumstances Wadja Wadja High School may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

How will the School use the personal information you provide?

Wadja Wadja High School will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Students and Parents

In relation to personal information of students and parents, Wadja Wadja High School's primary purpose of collection is to enable Wadja Wadja High School to provide schooling to students enrolled at the school, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of the school. This includes satisfying the needs of parents, the needs of the students and the needs of Wadja Wadja High School throughout the whole period the student is enrolled at the School.

The purposes for which Wadja Wadja High School uses personal information of students and parents include:

- to keep parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines
- day-to-day administration of Wadja Wadja High School
- looking after student's educational, social and medical wellbeing
- seeking donations and marketing for Wadja Wadja High School
- to satisfy Wadja Wadja High School's legal obligations and allow the school to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where Wadja Wadja High School requests personal information about a student or parent, if the information requested is not provided, Wadja Wadja High School may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student or permit the student to take part in a particular activity.

On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in School newsletters and magazines, on our intranet [and on our website] this may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions. The School will obtain permissions [annually] from the student's parent or guardian (and from the student if appropriate) if we would like to include such photographs or videos [or other identifying material] in our promotional material or otherwise make this material available to the public such as on the internet.

Job applicants, Staff Members and Contractors

In relation to personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors, Wadja Wadja High School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, staff member or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which Wadja Wadja High School uses personal information of job applicants, staff members and contractors include:

- in administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be
- for insurance purposes
- seeking donations and marketing for the School
- to satisfy the School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers

The School also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist Wadja Wadja High School in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as alumni associations, to enable Wadja Wadja High School and the volunteers to work together.

Marketing and Fundraising

Wadja Wadja High School treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of the school as an important part of ensuring that Wadja Wadja High School continues to provide a quality learning environment in which both students and staff thrive. Personal information held by Wadja Wadja High School may be disclosed to organisations that assist in the school's fundraising, for example, the Wadja Wadja High School's Foundation or alumni organisation [or, on occasions, external fundraising organisations].

Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

If you would like to opt-out of direct marketing please contact the [School Principal] on 0749350158.

Who might the School disclose Personal Information to and store your information with?

Wadja Wadja High School may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual for educational, legal, administrative, marketing and support purposes. This may include to:

- another school or staff at another school
- government departments (including for policy and funding purposes)

- medical practitioners
- people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, [sports] coaches, volunteers, counsellors and providers of learning and assessment tools
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN)
- people providing administrative and financial services to Wadja Wadja High School;
- recipients of School publications, such as newsletters and magazines
- students' parents or guardians
- anyone you authorise Wadja Wadja High School to disclose information to
- anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.

Sending and Storing Information Overseas

Wadja Wadja High School may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. However, Wadja Wadja High School will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied)
- otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.

Wadja Wadja High School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to Wadja Wadja High School that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may be stored in the 'cloud' which means that it may reside on a cloud service provider's server which may be situated outside Australia.

An example of such a cloud service provider is Google. Google provides the 'Google Apps for Education' (GAFE) including Gmail, and stores and processes limited personal information for this purpose. School personnel and the AIS and its service providers may have the ability to access, monitor, use or disclose emails, communications (e.g. instant messaging), documents and associated administrative data for the purposes of administering GAFE and ensuring its proper use.  [If GAFE is not applicable to your School, replace this paragraph with one relevant to the platform used by the School (e.g. Microsoft 365)]

The data centres where the personal information is likely to be kept are located in the USA, Taiwan, Singapore, Ireland, Netherlands and Belgium.  [If GAFE is not applicable to your School, replace this paragraph with the server locations (if practicable) of the applicable cloud product.]

Sensitive Information

In referring to 'sensitive information', Wadja Wadja High School means: information relating to a person's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.

Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is required by law.

Management and Security of Personal Information

Wadja Wadja High School's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of students' and parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals. Wadja Wadja High School has in place steps to protect the personal information Wadja Wadja High School holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Data Breaches

It will be deemed that an 'eligible data breach' has occurred if:

- there has been unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, personal information about one or more individuals (the affected individuals)
- a reasonable person would conclude there is a likelihood of serious harm to any affected individuals as a result
- the information is lost in circumstances where:
 - unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information is likely to occur
 - assuming unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information was to occur, a reasonable person would conclude that it would be likely to result in serious harm to the affected individuals.

Serious harm may include serious physical, psychological, emotional, economic and financial harm, as well as serious harm to reputation.

What must the school do in the event of an 'eligible data breach'?

If Wadja Wadja High School suspects that an eligible data breach has occurred, it will carry out a reasonable and expedient assessment/investigation within 30 days.

If such an assessment/investigation indicates there are reasonable grounds to believe an eligible data breach has occurred, then Wadja Wadja High School will be required to lodge a statement to the Privacy Commissioner (Commissioner). Where practical to do so, the school entity will also notify the affected individuals. If it is not practicable to notify the affected individuals, Wadja Wadja High School will publish a copy of the statement on its website or publicise it in another manner.

Exception to notification obligation

An exception to the requirement to notify will exist if there is a data breach and immediate remedial action is taken, and as a result of that action:

- there is no unauthorised access to, or unauthorised disclosure of, the information

- there is no serious harm to affected individuals, and as a result of the remedial action, a reasonable person would conclude the breach is not likely to result in serious harm.

Access and Correction of Personal Information

Under the Privacy Act, an individual has the right to seek and obtain access to any personal information which Wadja Wadja High School holds about them and to advise Wadja Wadja High School of any perceived inaccuracy. There are some exceptions to this right set out in the Act. Students will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their parents, but older students may seek access and correction themselves.

To make a request to access or to update any personal information Wadja Wadja High School holds about you or your child, please contact the [School Principal] in writing. Wadja Wadja High School may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. Wadja Wadja High School may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, Wadja Wadja High School will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

The school will take reasonable steps to ensure that any personal information is accurate, up to date, complete, relevant and not misleading.

Consent and Rights of Access to the Personal Information of Students

Wadja Wadja High School respects every parent's right to make decisions concerning their child's education. Generally, Wadja Wadja High School will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a student to the student's parents. Wadja Wadja High School will treat consent given by parents as consent given on behalf of the student, and notice to parents will act as notice given to the student.

As mentioned above, parents may seek access to personal information held by Wadja Wadja High School about them or their child by contacting the [School Principal]. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of the Wadja Wadja High School's duty of care to a student.

The School may, at its discretion, on the request of a student grant that student access to information held by Wadja Wadja High School about them, or allow a student to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the student and/or the student's personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and Complaints

If you would like further information about the way Wadja Wadja High School manages the personal information it holds or wish to make a complaint about Wadja Wadja High School's breach of the Australian Privacy Principles please contact the [School Principal] on [contact information]. Wadja Wadja High School will investigate any complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.
